

Rittenhouse will have your parts shipped directly from a Stens stocking warehouse in southwestern Ontario for Canadian customers or from one of the many stocking warehouses located across the US for our American customers. Direct shipping saves you valuable time!

The benefits of ordering aftermarket parts from Rittenhouse are simple: quality products; saving money; and saving time. We look forward to being able to serve our customers further.